

Trust Land Owners Guide

*To manage individual trust assets at Amskapi Piikanii (Blackfeet Nation).
This guide provides a series of visuals designed to help you navigate some of the more common trust land management processes.*

Contents

|                           |            |
|---------------------------|------------|
| ■ Estate Planning         | Page 1     |
| ■ Land exchange           | Page 3     |
| ■ Gift deed               | Page 4     |
| ■ Fee to trust            | Page 5     |
| ■ Rights of way           | Page 6     |
| ■ Grazing Allocation      | Page 7     |
| ■ Intro to Indian Probate | Back Cover |

Estate Planning

DISCLAIMER
The information appearing in this graphic is presented for informational purposes only. The objective of the fact sheet is to help you develop an understanding of the steps needed to navigate fractionated interest on Indian land. The contents should not be considered as legal advice or be used as such.

For legal information specific to your situation, contact appropriate legal counsel with your tribe or an attorney. Future change in laws cannot be predicted and statements in this fact sheet are based solely on the rules and regulations in force on the date of publication.

Fee To Trust

A Resource Provided By:

Notes

If BIA does not respond within 60 days, file a complaint (tort claim)

Key

CFR - Code of Federal Regulations
RMR - BIA Rocky Mountain Region
LTSR - Land Title Status Report
OAS - Appraisals & Valuation Services
OST - Office of the Special Trustee
SOI - Secretary of the Interior

DISCLAIMER

The information appearing in this graphic is presented for informational purposes only. The objective of the fact sheet is to help you develop an understanding of the steps needed to navigate fractionated interest on Indian land. The contents should not be considered as legal advice or be used as such.

For legal information specific to your situation, contact appropriate legal counsel with your tribe or an attorney. Future change in laws cannot be predicted and statements in this fact sheet are based solely on the rules and regulations in force on the date of publication.

Land Exchange

A Resource Provided By:

Key

ITI - Individual Tribal Interest
BTLD - Blackfeet Land Department
BTLC - Blackfeet Tribal Land Committee
General BTBC - Blackfeet Tribal Business Committee
Executive BTC - Blackfeet Tribal Council
AVSO - Appraisal and Valuation Services Office
OST - Office of the Special Trustee
A&D- Acquisition & Disposal (BIA Realty)

DISCLAIMER
The information appearing in this graphic is presented for informational purposes only. The objective of the fact sheet is to help you develop an understanding of the steps needed to navigate fractionated interest on Indian land. The contents should not be considered as legal advice or be used as such.

For legal information specific to your situation, contact appropriate legal counsel with your tribe or an attorney. Future change in laws cannot be predicted and statements in this fact sheet are based solely on the rules and regulations in force on the date of publication.

Right of Way / Grant of Easement

Key

- ITI - Individual Tribal Interest
- CFEDS - Certified Federal Surveyors Program
- NEPA - National Environmental Policy Act
- RMR - BIA Rocky Mountain Region
- AVSO - Appraisals & Valuation Services Office
- OST - Office of the Special Trustee
- ROW- Right of Way

DISCLAIMER
The information appearing in this graphic is presented for informational purposes only. The objective of the fact sheet is to help you develop an understanding of the steps needed to navigate fractionated interest on Indian land. The contents should not be considered as legal advice or be used as such.

For legal information specific to your situation, contact appropriate legal counsel with your tribe or an attorney. Future change in laws cannot be predicted and statements in this fact sheet are based solely on the rules and regulations in force on the date of publication.

Gift Deed

A Resource Provided By:

Notes

- You may only gift deed within your family (CFR Title 25, Ch. 1, Subchapter H, Part 152, Sec. 152.25(d))
- o Obtain BIA Acquisition & Disposal (A&D) form: Grantee Information Sheet to provide proof of relationship
  - o It is the applicant's responsibility to document relationship. If it's a "special relationship", document it!
- **The BIA is working on getting a categorical exclusion to the federal trust requirement of NEPA review

DISCLAIMER

The information appearing in this graphic is presented for informational purposes only. The objective of the fact sheet is to help you develop an understanding of the steps needed to navigate fractionated interest on Indian land. The contents should not be considered as legal advice or be used as such.

For legal information specific to your situation, contact appropriate legal counsel with your tribe or an attorney. Future change in laws cannot be predicted and statements in this fact sheet are based solely on the rules and regulations in force on the date of publication.

Grazing Allocation & Permitting

CFR (Part 166)

DISCLAIMER
The information appearing in this graphic is presented for informational purposes only. The objective of the fact sheet is to help you develop an understanding of the steps needed to navigate fractionated interest on Indian land. The contents should not be considered as legal advice or be used as such. For legal information specific to your situation, contact appropriate legal counsel with your tribe or an attorney. Future change in laws cannot be predicted and statements in this fact sheet are based solely on the rules and regulations in force on the date of publication.

Intro to Indian Probate

Why Should I Write A Will?

- 1. A will can help ensure the successful transfer of your land to the next generation.
- 2. A will can help ensure that your decisions about what should happen to your land are honored.
- 3. A will can help your family avoid further fractionation.

A will determines:

Who will receive your property

When they will receive the property

What Tools Do I Have to Write A Will?

Additional tools from MSU are available

Inheriting Indian Land Fact Sheets
Visit: bit.ly/IILFactSheets

Writing A Will
Visit: bit.ly/IndianWillWriting

How Do I Write A Will?

First, ask yourself these 4 main questions about your trust land and IIM account:

- 1 What do I own?
- 2 Who should receive what?
- 3 When and how should they receive it?
  - Before I Pass
    - Sale
    - Gift Deed
    - Land Exchange
  - Upon My Passing
    - Write a Will
- 4 Are my wishes clear?

Lorem ipsum

Notes

